

Profile of the Chief Vigilance Officer

Sh. Ashok Kumar is a 1992 batch IP&T AFS officer, joining through Civil Services Examination 1991. His educational qualification include MA(Psychology) from Delhi University and MBA(Finance) from IMT Ghaziabad. He has attended various programs of Government of India at places like Tokyo (Japan), University of Maryland and Duke University (USA), as well as IMF and World Bank. He has vast experience of working in different capacities in Department of Telecommunications, Posts and BSNL.