Press Release

RITES & C-DAC collaborate on IT solutions for consultancy works

Gurugram, February 12, 2025: RITES Ltd., a prime transport infrastructure consultancy organisation, today signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with a Centre for Development of Advanced Computing (C-DAC), a scientific society of the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY), to collaborate on IT solutions for consultancy assignments.

Under this MoU, both parties will explore opportunities for collaboration in areas such as e-Governance, cybersecurity & cyber forensic, cloud computing, big data analytics, free and open source software and solutions, IoT, Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning, education and training, research and development in cutting-edge technologies relevant to various consultancy assignments.

As an initial step, RITES and C-DAC will collaborate on developing the 'MAITRI' platform, enabling digitalisation of trade information for the seamless movement of cargo between Indian and Middle East ports as part of the first phase of international Virtual Trade Corridor.
